1) Report from the book and record sale.

Paul, Jen and Denna Bee did yomen's work. John recycled massive cardboard in a monsoon the most successful Book and Record sale EVER $6900 something

Social Media and Craig's list worked for adds

A venue for next year discussed and making a calendar next year should be perhaps the last week end in Sept.

Paul thinks a core point group that curates, would keep down the chaos and make us more money. We all agreed.

Jill said perhaps a manual for the how to put a Book and Record sale together would be great.

Jen thinks the event is a good booster for the membership drive.

Bill Resnick made comments about ways he thought the committee fill up the news gap left by the lack of Oregonian availability
